

NAMES SIGNED FOR RECALL

City Charter Will Permit the Ousting of Aldermen.

Municipal Ownership League Behind the Movement.

Snowden on Railroad Commission Now Secretary.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fifty petitions for a "recall amendment" to the city charter, which will permit voters in a particular ward to oust an alderman charged with misconduct before the end of his term, are now being vigorously circulated throughout the city. Committees have been appointed, and the movement is being pushed.

The present activity is due to the charges that part of the Council is in the hands of the Seattle Electric Company, owning the local street railway system, and a fight to prevent the company securing exclusive franchises on the new streets which will be the arteries of the city when they are completed.

A municipal ownership league has been formed, and is behind the movement to install a city system of street railways, and to oust the company.

The first step they intend to take is a clause in all future franchises which will permit joint use by the city.

SNOWDEN IS ELECTED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

TACOMA, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Clifton A. Snowden, formerly managing editor of the Tacoma Times, was yesterday elected secretary of the Tacoma Railroad Commission, effective April 1, at a salary of $2000. Until then he will be assistant secretary, having charge of the commission's relations with the railroad companies in other States.

Snowden was editor of the Tacoma Times during Nelson Bennet's ownership, and he was subsequently publisher of the Tacoma Times. He was married for a second time by a large number of the most influential men in the State.

THE RAINFALL.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 2.—A heavy rain began at 3 o'clock tonight, and continued for several hours. Farmers are generally pleased, as the rain is sufficient to moisten the ground and start the plows. Every pound of crops has been gathered so that there will be no possible loss.

Continuously at Phoenix.

PHOENIX, Nov. 2.—It has been raining continuously from 7 a.m. and is still raining. The rain is a relief to the farmers, who have been suffering from a drought.

ILSON ON CROP REPORTS.

SECRETARY TREATS OF A VERY PUZZLING SUBJECT.

Has No Remedy to Suggest for the Present Method of Issuing Documents on Crop Prospects—Congress Must Take Some Action on System That Is Admittedly Bad.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, in his annual report, made public today, deals largely with the improvements in the system of crop reporting made necessary by the scandal in connection with the bank of the cotton-crop report last June. He offers no remedy for the evil of having at least three different sets of reports issued, and this matter is likely to receive the attention of Congress, with a view of taking the work out of the hands of the Department of Agriculture and placing it entirely in the control of the Census Bureau.

There are now monthly reports from the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Agriculture; weekly and monthly reports from the Weather Bureau; and reports of the crops as gathered from the Bureau of the Census.

The system is as bad as can be. Reports that are more numerous than in many instances misleading are made, one on the heels of the other, and the confusion is increased by the fact that the Census Bureau, with its fine system of reporting, is not used.

Four crops make any records as to value—corn, hay, wheat and rice, although in some sections the production of other crops is high, and that of prices still higher. The Secretary estimates that the farms of the country have increased in value during the past five years to a present aggregate of $12,000,000,000.

Every season during the past five years, he says, "has registered an increase of $1,000,000,000 in the value of the farms of this country."

This increased value, the Secretary suggests, is invested better than in bank deposits or even in the gilt-edged bonds of private corporations.

In dealing with the crop report, the Secretary Wilson after referring to the "gross breach of trust on the part of the employees of the Bureau of Statistics" says:

"This department acted with vigor and dispatch when it found evidence of wrongdoing on the part of its own officials, but we have no evidence of disciplinary or preventive action at the hands of the line, where gamblers interested neither in the production nor consumption disturb values to the injury of both and make loud outcry when creatures of their own kind corrupt officials to betray confidence for the love of money. The responsibility for this 'saw' shared by everyone who, to get money, will work, gamblers in farm products. When this form of industry comes, these parties who tempt department officials will have to work for their money."

The method of handling crop reports, he says, has been thoroughly recast during the year. There also has been a decided change in the methods of work prescribed for field agents, each agent is now assigned to a definite group of States with which he becomes thoroughly familiar by travel each month.

Analyzing the principal crops for the year, the Secretary says that corn reached its highest production at 2,000,000,000 bushels, a gain of 200,000,000 over the next lowest year, 1909; hay is second in order of value, although cotton and second place during the two preceding years. The hay crop this year is valued at $600,000,000. Cotton comes third, with a valuation of $275,000,000; wheat, $225,000,000; oats, $225,000,000; potatoes, $125,000,000; barley, $125,000,000; tobacco, $125,000,000; sugar-cane and sugar beets, $200,000,000; rice, $125,000,000; dairy products, $400,000,000. An increase of $4,000,000 over last year.

The farmer's hen, the Secretary says, is becoming a worthy companion to his cow. The annual production of eggs is now a score of billions. Poultry products have climbed to a place of more than half a billion dollars in value, so the farmer's hen competes with wheat for precedence.

There are more homes, and with a larger aggregate value, than ever before, notwithstanding the depression of the cycle and later by the suburban trolley.

MUTINY AND REVOLT.

The west and south of the city and along the north shore of San Francisco Bay, and only the guns of Fort Constantine which defend the entrance to the roadstead, could be brought to bear upon the barracks.

The Bielosotk regiment, the only other regiment in the city, received the mutineers with cheers, but thus far some of the artillerymen have also joined the men in revolt.

Besides the Bielosotk regiment, there are two battalions of artillery and a battalion of fortress artillery here.

The Bielosotk is standing in the offing and is still obeying the orders of Vice-Admiral Choukine, but the crews are disaffected, and there is great doubt whether they can be restrained from joining the mutineers and greater doubt that they will fire upon them.

Friday eight sailors at the barracks escaped, disarmed and expelled their officers. They then assembled a great meeting. Rear-Admiral Piazarevski, commander of the practice squadron, supported by a company from the Bielosotk regiment, proceeded to the barracks and when it refused to disperse ordered the troops to fire. Instead of shooting the mutineers, however, two shots rang out and Capt. Stein of the company fell dead and Rear-Admiral Piazarevski received a ball in his shoulder.

This morning (Saturday) they were joined by the workmen of the port, and at 11 o'clock in the morning the sailors, carrying the banner of St. George, and the workmen red flags, marched to the barracks of the Bielosotk. The officers of the regiment threatened to fire at the mutineers, but Gen. Neupietz, a colonel and five other officers, surrendered and were sent under escort to the marine prison.

Being reinforced by the rank and file of the entire regiment the mutineers and workmen formed a procession composed of 10,000 men and marched through the city. At Novoladivostok Place, the procession encountered several companies of the Bielosotk regiment with a machine gun battery. The mutineers approached, then they began to play the national anthem and the soldiers, who were playing the national anthem, presented arms and exchanged cheers. But the Bielosotk men registered the appeals of the mutineers and when it refused to disperse ordered the troops to fire. Instead of shooting the mutineers, however, two shots rang out and Capt. Stein of the company fell dead and Rear-Admiral Piazarevski received a ball in his shoulder.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Following a period of moderate weather, a considerable decrease of temperature is predicted for tomorrow. Snow fell today in the Rocky Mountain region, extending over Montana, Wyoming and Utah.

The maximum temperature, 41 degrees, was recorded in the early morning. A shift of wind to the northwest acted as a damper, and the mercury dropped to 35 degrees, keeping close to that point the remainder of the day.

ABATE THE NUISANCE.

The interest of the police department has been enlisted by the local health department in the campaign to bid Chicago of noxious matter. From now on every policeman must use his nasal sense to locate foul smells.

Every whiff of air which is burdened with the miasma of the stock-yards or "bubblery creek" must be followed to its source and such data transmitted to the City Hall as will enable the health inspectors to trace the fugitive to its origin and abate the nuisance.

DIAZ PROHIBITS TRUSTS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A bill has been introduced in the National Congress by direction of President Diaz to prohibit the formation and operation of trusts in Mexico. It is said that the proposed law is directed particularly at the United States Steel Corporation, the Standard Oil Company and other lesser American trusts which have a grip upon the business of this country. The provisions of the bill are very drastic, and the trust of the United States Steel Corporation in Mexico when it becomes a law.

CROOK IS SHOT BY DETECTIVE.

Alleged Horse Thief Wounded in Street Fight.

Three Policemen and Fugitive Exchange Bullets.

Police Think They've Caught Bad Record Man.

Winged by a bullet from Detective Roberts' revolver, Charles McDonald, an alleged horse thief, dropped on San Pedro street yesterday afternoon after he had engaged in a running fight with three policemen in an effort to evade arrest.

Eight or ten shots were exchanged between the fugitive and the officers as the fight was kept up along Winston street from Main to San Pedro, and McDonald was not brought to a halt until he had turned down San Pedro street and was in a fair way to make his escape. On the streets were a good many people at the time, and the shots attracted a large crowd to the scene. McDonald is charged with the theft of a horse, saddle and bridle from the Keno Stables, No. 1097 Los Angeles street. Friday he went to the stable and hired a fine saddle horse from F. H. Smith, who was the change. Smith says he followed the name of Anderson at the time and stated that he was going into the country a short distance after a horse of his own which he intended to leave in the Keno Stables.

McDonald departed about 1:30 o'clock, after promising to return at nightfall, but nothing was heard of him or of horse or rider. Smith was passing along Main street on a car about 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he noticed McDonald turning into Winston street, jumping off the car. Smith halted the car and demanded the name of Anderson. "Tell with you, I never saw you or your horse before," said McDonald. Smith accused him of the theft of the animal, but McDonald only laughed at him. The stableman followed McDonald until he saw Patrolman W. King, who started to place McDonald under arrest. Instead of quietly submitting the man whipped out a revolver and fired two shots at Smith and the policeman. King returned the fire and the running pistol fight began.

Detectives Ritch and Roberts were in the neighborhood and they ran down Fifth street to cut the man off. McDonald had just turned into San Pedro street when the officers ordered him to halt. Brandishing his weapon, McDonald defied the policemen and started to continue his flight. Roberts and Ritch both fired, and the alleged horse thief dropped.

While on the ground McDonald again tried to shoot the officers, but a stern command from Ritch to drop the gun made the fellow change his mind. McDonald was a perfect baby in the receiving hospital while the surgeons were at work on him. The bullet had passed through the right thigh, grazing the bone. The wound is not considered serious.

When searched a dark lantern and other suspicious articles were found in McDonald's pockets. He said he came from Grand Rapids and has been working as a general laborer, but his hands are as soft as woman's.

The police believe the wounded prisoner has been connected with several crimes and they are busy looking up his record. McDonald would not talk, but stated that he did not take the horse from the stables and that he knows nothing whatever about the transaction.

GRAVE EQUESTRIENNE.

Blushing Young Woman Exhibits Nerve When Thrown by Horse in Front of Trolley Car.

Who is the handsome, well-dressed and brave young woman, who narrowly escaped being ground to death beneath the wheels of a Pasadena Interurban street car at Daly street and Downey avenue last evening?

The young woman was garbed in a dapper riding habit, and had been enjoying a ride of several hours in the East Side. Approaching the crossing of the street car tracks at Downey avenue, her horse suddenly stopped, and with a downward movement of the head, precipitated her with great force upon the left rail of the first track.

But a few yards away on Daly street was a rapidly approaching street car. The young woman lay stunned from the force of the sudden fall, directly in the path of the car. Fortunately, the motorman discovered her plight in time to reverse the power and bring the car to a standstill before the crushing was reached.

In a few moments the girl had regained consciousness and was picked up by pedestrians who were passing at the time, and carried into the nearby grocery store of Stockwell & Bradford. She was suffering from slight lacerations of the face and forehead, and severe body bruises, but without evidence of nerve and determination which would have done credit to many a steeplechase rider by refusing to submit to medical attention, and calling for her horse and trolley.

The horse had been meantime being captured, and the unknown rider hurriedly left the store, and bravely regained her seat in the saddle, rode off with a gasp.

FLORENCITA PARK

"Everything Necessary For Ideal Suburban Living"

Think of purchasing a lot surrounded by beautiful avenues, fruit trees, shrubbery, high grade cement work, beautiful Mission entrance, system of fire protection, private water system, and with a perfect car service for $15.00 a month. Do you "catch the thought?"

Lots $500 Up

Only four days remain in which you can purchase lots at this magnificent residential park at 10 per cent. cash and $15 a month. This means only $50 down on a $500 lot, $60 cash on a $600 lot, etc. You'll never have another chance like this in 20 years. This is no ordinary proposition—it is without parallel.

IN THE HEART OF HOLLYWOOD

Life is what you make it,
Long and sweet and good;
Life is where you live it;
Come to HOLLYWOOD.

Take Hollywood car at Fourth and Broadway and get off at Cahuenga Avenue

We claim for this tract that it is one of Hollywood's choicest pieces of property. Many real estate men have tried to buy it and place it on the market long before this, but owing to the fact that it was a portion of an estate that was being settled in the courts it could not be sold until the final decree and distribution by order of the court was made. Everything regarding court proceedings has been complied with and an absolutely perfect title has been perfected; all deeds and certificates of title will be made by the Title Insurance Co., thereby insuring a perfect title.

This property is in the center of Hollywood; we claim it, we are willing to prove it, and can do so if you will come to our Hollywood office.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON Hollywood Park Place

Opening, Saturday and Sunday, was a splendid success, far exceeding our most sanguine expectations. Los Angeles people know a good thing when they see it, and HOLLYWOOD PARK PLACE is, beyond question, the best thing in sight for homeseekers and investors.

Act While There Is Yet Time!

These Lots Are Selling With a Rush—They are literally "in the heart of Hollywood," surrounded by beautiful homes and close to the business district. Hollywood is growing fast, values are rising rapidly. Get into Hollywood Park Place and make money; but get in quick.

This Tract Will Be Closed Out This Week unless all signs fail. Monday and Tuesday will be big days. Go out today and make sure of choice selections. Hollywood Park Place is a big tract and every taste and pocketbook may be suited. GET INTO BEAUTIFUL HOLLYWOOD. WE WILL GET YOU IN RIGHT

PRICE OF LOTS:

$250 to $1500

One-fourth cash, balance in six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest at six per cent. on deferred payments. Five per cent. discount for cash. Five per cent. ADDITIONAL DISCOUNT TO ANY PURCHASER WHO WILL BUILD THIS SEASON.

Building restrictions $1500 to $5000.

Hollywood Park Place is in the heart of Hollywood, ON CAHUENGA AVE., one block north of Paul de Longpre, "King of the Flower Painters." THIS BEAUTIFUL AND SLIGHTLY SUBDIVISION OF 38 LOTS IS NOW SURVEYED AND BEING GRADED. Water has already been piped into the tract.

Two blocks from this property the postoffice and city hall are located, there are three fine brick blocks in course of construction, the new bank now located two blocks south, drug stores, hardware, groceries and numerous other stores are located on Prospect and Cahuenga avenues. It must be seen to be appreciated. We have carriages in waiting at our office and we will take pleasure in showing our tract and its surroundings. Our office is located on Prospect and Cahuenga avenues, close to the De Longpre mansion.

HIGHLAND PARK will have a bank building at Avenue 37 and Pasadena avenue. The structure is to be of brick and plaster, mission style of architecture. The building will be four stories and ornamented with Italian columns. The structure will be given over entirely to banking business. The growth of business and increasing population of Highland Park has made the establishment of a bank imperative. G. W. Griffith is organizing the bank and expects to close a charter this week. A downtown banking company has been organized. The directors have not been named. Highland Park is being leveled and UNION SQUARE.

All of the frontage on Hoover street between West Twenty-fourth and Washington streets has been secured by signatures from the property owners and a unanimous petition presented to the Council was passed making the early paving of the thoroughfare between the two streets assured. The paving of Union square to Washington street from the junction at West Twenty-fourth and Hoover streets is also assured. This will mean the paving of the two principal streets of Union square. The wife and family of Pasadena have purchased a home at No. 2115 Union avenue and will reside in Union square. Mrs. Nye, wife of Col. Nye of No. 1611 West Twenty-fifth street, was

There will be an array of useful and interesting articles and toys for sale. Mrs. Kavanaugh will have charge of the dinner, with Dr. Kister and Mrs. Kister, the latter of the dinner. Mrs. Hogan and Blanche Rice will be chairmen of the booths. Rev. Robert F. Fisher, pastor of St. James Methodist Episcopal Church, has returned to his charge after a delightful vacation of ten days spent in the San Bernardino Mountains.

UNIVERSITY.

Extra accommodation for storehouse purposes is being made at the University police substation on Jefferson street. A barn is being erected in the rear of the station and other property brought to the station will be stored instead of taken to the central station as heretofore. There has been some inconvenience formerly, as those who have applied for stolen property have been taken to the first-street station in order to recover their goods. Policemen in this section of the city receive many lost wheels, and there are sometimes as many as twenty-five bicycles at one time stored at the station.

Acme Lodge, No. 302, I.O.O.F., concluded the opening exercises of its new hall and held the anniversary of the organization of the lodge Friday evening in commodious new quarters at No. 715 West Jefferson street. A varied and interesting programme of speaking and music was rendered. Refreshments were served in the banquet room, with uproarious fun, which continued until midnight. The following programme was given: Opening address, Anson Miller, Noble Grand; piano solo, Miss Jessie Blair; responses, W. W. Phelps, Grand Master; quartette, G. W. Alexander, Earl, Joseph H. H. Thompson, and others. "Turning the New Leaf," W. F. Hyatt, Vice-Grand; response, L. R. Grant, D. D. at 8 o'clock. "Rehearsal," Mrs. G. W. Alexander, dedication of the hall, by Rev. W. F. Hyatt, Vice-Grand; response, W. F. Hyatt, Vice-Grand; Reuben Master, Recording Secretary; Will MacDonald, Financial Secretary; Dr. W. H. Palmer, Treasurer; J. Wright, Chaplain; and Thomas Evans, Warden.

A row of very artistic bungalows has been completed on Vermont avenue near Adams street. These pretty modern houses have already been sold for an aggregate price of $24,000. It may seem a high price to pay $400 for a bungalow, but these are on good-sized lots and are beautifully finished in Finnish oak. They have built-in buffets, window seats, hardwood floors and everything known as a modern improvement that usually goes into more expensive homes. Mrs. Amelia H. Hildebrandt has recently let a contract for a six-room cottage at No. 2015 Normandie street. Dr. Francis M. Larkin, the pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, San Francisco, delivered an interesting address before the students of the university, Friday morning, ably impressing upon the minds of the audience the advantages of a small, well-equipped college over the larger universities.

The ladies of the University Methodist Episcopal Church are making elaborate preparations for their annual Christmas social to be given in the church Christmas eve. Arrangements have been completed for the annual debate of the U.S.C. and the University of the Pacific. The question to be debated is, "Resolved, that an educational restriction should be placed on immigration to the United States, namely, that the immigrant desiring admittance be able to write the United States Constitution either in English or in the language of his own country." The students will be granted Thanksgiving recess from Wednesday until the following Monday. A big "holly-up" will be celebrated by the students today noon in view of the splendid showing of the football team Saturday.

PICO HEIGHTS.

That Pico Heights is growing as rapidly as any other section of the city is evidenced by building for store purposes west on Pico street beyond Hobson. The business district is growing to such an extent that Pico street west of Vermont is practically given up to its demands. The encroachments of Rosedale cemetery have limited the growth southward and the conformation of the ground precludes the building northward. Pico street property has increased greatly in value during the past year and there is a demand for frontage at the present time. Members of the Junior Baptist Young People's Union of the Inman Baptist Church enjoyed a social Saturday night at the home of the pastor, Rev. W. C. Clatworthy, where folk were entertained with a good programme and refreshments were served. Rev. D. B. Looftbourgh preached at the Methodist Church yesterday both morning and evening.

WESTLAKE.

Miss Alma Bradley of No. 1029 South Union avenue entertained members of the S. M. Club Saturday evening. The S. M. Club has sold the lot on the southwest corner of Seventh and Whittier streets to Mrs. Mary A. Whittier. The consideration named $14,000. Mrs. Gail B. Johnson of No. 241 Westlake avenue are on a pleasure trip to San Francisco and other northern points, the occasion being the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The lot improved with two frame cottages, corner of Westlake avenue and seventh street, was bought by local buyers last week the consideration named being $11,000. The new residence of Rev. Robert McIntyre, No. 238 South Alvarado street is almost completed.

EAST LOS ANGELES.

Foundations have been laid for the planing mill plant to be built by the City Mill & Manufacturing Company on North Avenue 30. It will cover two and one-half blocks and will be the largest of its kind in this section of the city. The main factory will be of brick, two stories, 60x120 feet. The warehouse, also two stories, will be 120x124 feet and the office building 20x22 feet. A dry kiln, 20x22 feet with lumber sheds will be built. The company is incorporated and will be ready for business the latter part of February. The plant will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000 and about fifty men will be employed. The Women's Club gave a reception to new members and visiting friends on Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the East Side Congregational Church. Mrs. A. N. Foster and Mrs. Owen McAlister were the hostesses. Conary Hall promises to be the largest business block in East Los Angeles. There will be five store rooms below and a spacious hall and side rooms above. There will be a hip roof making the ceiling of the hall high. Two rows of windows to the upper floor will make the hall well lighted from the exterior.

Eastgate Chapter, No. 235, Order of the Eastern Star, gave a progressive party on Tuesday evening at Kramer's Hall. Refreshments were served. Mr. Smith, pastor of the Christian Church, preached Sunday morning. In the evening Evangelist DeForest Austin of Nebraska, conducted a course. The Congregationalist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches of East Los Angeles held a union service last night at the East Side Congregational Church in the interest of the persecuted Jews of Russia. Mr. Black, secretary of the association for the relief of the survivors of the recent massacre Saturday.

secret, spoke. A large sum was realized from the collection taken. Golden State Circle, Woodmen of the World, gave an entertainment on Wednesday night. The programme consisted of music, charades and drills. Refreshments were served.

THE NORTHWEST.

Sunset boulevard, between Everett street and Beaudry avenue, will be sidewalked this week along the south side. The thoroughfare throughout one of the finest in the city. Many fine residences are being built in the vicinity of the boulevard, and much property is changing hands. The work of raising the unsightly oil derricks continues steadily. Meantime the vigilance of the citizens of the northwest has not relaxed and every effort will be made to clear all derricks out of the hill section. As fast as the derricks are removed the dump holes are filled and the work of leveling the property follows. In several instances handsome homes have been erected on the sites. Work is being done on the grading of Commonwealth avenue. Hundreds of oil derricks have been removed from the property facing on the avenue, and the street has become one of the most desirable residence locations in the Second Ward.

GARVANZA.

An entertainment and bazaar given Wednesday evening by the Congregational Church was a distinct success. A corps of maid and matrons presided and a host of pretty things were exhibited for sale. A varied programme was presented. Mrs. Nellie Kimball gave several selections on the violin, Mrs. Agnes Crane sang, and Mrs. Gertrude A. Young and Miss Florence Paine gave readings. The bazaar was successful. The attendance at the College of Fine Arts is above the average and there is much interest shown in the plans for the enlargement of the school building. The proposed addition will make the structure a building more than twice the size of the present structure. Several handsome residences are being built in the vicinity of Avenue 36 and Pasadena avenue. The Garvanza Fortnightly Club held its regular meeting Thursday evening at the home of W. R. Bacon on Avenue 36. The programme consisted of music under the supervision of George Anderson. Those taking part were: Miss Grace Whitehorn, soprano; Charles Curry, tenor; Miss Florence Paine, violinist; William Edson, Ströbridge, pianist; Miss Frances Burrows, George Anderson, accompanist; Miss William Cady, S. W. Green and William Miller were the entertainment committee. Willis Reed of Chicago visited last week at the home of his cousin, Mrs. W. R. Myers. Mrs. Olive Thorne Miller, with her daughter, Miss Mary Miller, and granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Smith, are guests at the Garvanza Villa, while waiting the completion of their new home.

MONEY IS OFFERED TO BUILD LIBRARY.

Gift of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars if the City Will Find Site. Dr. Trueworthy Brings Good News, Contingent on Local Action.

GOOD news is this which Dr. J. W. Trueworthy, president of the board of public library directors, brings back from his eastern trip. He is assured of a gift of Los Angeles of $300,000 for the erection of a first-class public library building, so soon as the city shall secure a definite site for the same.

Here is the opportunity for some public-spirited citizens or citizens to step forward and provide the ground necessary, so that at least the City of the Angels may have the housing for its books which has so long been a crying need.

Dr. and Mrs. Trueworthy, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Eleanor Blackburn, arrived at their home, No. 712 general prosperity everywhere apparent," said Dr. Trueworthy. "In Iowa and Nebraska, I noted that the crops were so great they could not be stored in the cribs and barns. I saw everywhere great stacks of hay and rough feed, and the corn cribs were literally overcrowded with huge piles of corn in husks like hay stacks lying in the open fields."

Dr. Trueworthy has almost recovered from the effects of his stroke, and will resume his practice. His wife is still suffering from the injury she received, and it is feared they will be permanent.

WOULDN'T STAY DOWN.

Champion Glutton Forfeits Bet on Big Eating Contest—His Stomach Rebelled.

One of the strongest wagers ever made in Los Angeles was lost last night at a human feed store on Second street by a fat man who, previous to his disastrous defeat, was the champion epicurean of this city.

For $5 a side the wager was laid that the fat man could eat a bowl of green turtle soup, one dozen fried oysters, liberally sprinkled with oyster sauce, two half orders of sandwiches, one full order of steamed chicken, and one dozen raw oysters. No liquid refreshment to be taken during the contest.

The fat man and two friends went to the restaurant on West Second street about 7 o'clock last night to enter the wager. The center table was chosen for the test, and the fat man seated himself solemnly before his two friends. The money was deposited, a special waiter detailed to serve, and the bet was on. The fat man looked determined.

The turtle soup was easy, the dozen fried oysters were not, but the fat man said "lasted good to him"; the second order he said was "a little stale, had been out of the water too long." The steamed chicken looked suspicious, but the fat man said he would eat it. He did not balk, however, and swallowed the chicken, according to the wager. By this time the fat man looked weary, and the friends were glad.

"Bring on the raw oysters," said the fat man wearily. The waiter hurried with the toothsome dainties, and the fat man jumped to the attack.

Two oysters disappeared quickly, and then the big man stopped. Eight minutes later he was back, and he waited him ten minutes respite. He used fine precious moments and time was called. He dived to his task again and finished another oyster. Then he threw up his hands—the victor. Seven oysters remained on his plate, and he went out quickly.

The friends took the bet and waited for the gourmand to return. He came from the rear of the restaurant a thinner and much more man.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

The President has proclaimed that next Thursday shall be the day set apart for giving thanks and partaking of the usual Thanksgiving dinner. This is the day of all days, when the spirit of hospitality is most in evidence. It is the day that we are all desirous of having the family board well provided with the festive turkey and the many accessories so necessary for correct table service. We all wish to have everything in keeping with the occasion—the furniture, the carpets, the draperies must look their very best.

In our show window we have arranged a dining-room setting which may serve to give you a helpful hint regarding the preparation of your dining-room.

We are showing here an Old Colonial set in the genuine mahogany. It is plain and simple but rich and effective.

In this connection we wish to also call attention to a very creditable oil painting showing the Grand Canyon of Colorado, which is also on display in this window. It is the work of Mr. A. C. Conner.

Our store will be closed all day Thanksgiving Day.

In just as well to remark at the moment that if the Los Angeles team had not been lucky the past week would not have been much chance to win, and the double beating yesterday from the poor old Portland team but emphasizes that fact.

The Los Angeles team came to win four out of the seven games played in one of the most successful seasons and now the crisis is practically over the season.

Portland's two games gave a fair indication of the condition of the team. In the first game, Gray pitched a fine game, but in the second game, he was not so good.
